WASHINGTON – A Louisiana man was sentenced to prison on December 12, 2024, after he previously pleaded guilty to felony obstruction of law enforcement during the Jan. 6, 2021, breach of the U.S. Capitol building. His actions and the actions of others disrupted a joint session of the U.S. Congress convened to ascertain and count the electoral votes related to the 2020 presidential election.

Charles Tyler Himber, 30, of Slidell, Louisiana, was sentenced to four months in prison, 36 months of supervised release, and ordered to pay $2,000 in restitution by U.S. District Judge Loren L. AliKhan. The sentence is to be served intermittently within a year of his sentencing. Himber previously pleaded guilty to one count of obstruction of law enforcement during a civil disorder on July 29, 2024.

According to court documents, Himber attended the "Stop the Steal" rally on Jan. 6, 2021, in Washington, D.C., and afterward made his way to the east side of the U.S. Capitol building. There, rioters were attempting to enter the building through the East Rotunda Doors. At about 3:07 p.m., an alarm rang as some rioters were escorted out of the building and as others, including Himber, pushed forward against police to force their way inside. Despite these efforts, rioters were unable to enter the building. Himber yelled, "Let us in!"

At about 3:21 p.m., some rioters were inside the building in the antechamber by the East Rotunda Doors, and others, including Himber, were outside, attempting to push its way inside. The crowd outside then pushed their way past the police and into the building. Once inside, Himber and other rioters surged forward and into the Rotunda. Police later escorted Himber and other rioters out of the building. Outside, directly below the steps on the east front, Himber climbed onto an armored truck.

Court documents say that Himber made several posts to Facebook on Jan. 6, 2021, including "Were in," "Making history," and "Storm in Capitol Hill is a go...draining the swamp manually...Evacuating Capitol Hill pushing back."

The FBI arrested Himber on Feb. 16, 2024.

The U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Columbia and the Department of Justice National Security Division's Counterterrorism Section are prosecuting this case. The U.S. Attorney's Office for the Eastern District of Louisiana provided valuable assistance.

The FBI's New Orleans and Washington Field Offices investigated this case. The U.S. Capitol Police and the Metropolitan Police Department provided valuable assistance.

In the 47 months since Jan. 6, 2021, more than 1,572 individuals have been charged in nearly all 50 states for crimes related to the breach of the U.S. Capitol, including more than 590 individuals charged with assaulting or impeding law enforcement, a felony. The investigation remains ongoing.
